Spoken, or can play with any percussion instruments

Toot Toot Toot Toot Toot Toot Toot Toot Toot Toot Toot Toot

This is a fun activity for classes of all ages.

You can do this with virtually any instruments. Untuned percussion works very well, like drums, claves or tambourines.

You could also use this as an introduction to the keyboard or tuned percussion if you have access to those instruments, and older children who are capable of doing those things.

Often the preschool class may take place in a music room which has keyboard or xylophones present, and little children are 'busting' to have a go. This little piece may give them the opportunity to do so - Just using the note 'C'.
